

STAB-PROOF COVERT VEST HERKULES ELITE

The Stab-proof covert vest Herkules Elite is the premium model in the Herkules range and provides an even higher level of comfort while maintaining the same protection performance. A patent-pending construction method combined with high-strength Cordura®-like filament yarns provides significantly improved breathability and noticeably reduces heat and moisture build-up.

This lightweight, flexible and breathable covert vest can be worn discreetly, even during extended periods of use. The protection panels are manufactured in Remscheid, Germany – Made in Germany.
